The storage fee is charged for the entire period of your cargo's stay at the Customs Terminal (if it exceeds 5 business days from the date of arrival of the cargo at our warehouse), regardless of the actions or inaction of any government agencies that affected the storage period. When calculating the storage fee, the greater weight of the shipment (actual/volumetric) is taken into account.

Please note that according to the Customs Code of Ukraine, the period of storage of international express shipments under customs control SHOULD NOT EXCEED 30 CALENDAR DAYS. After the specified period, the shipments must be returned to the sender. In some cases, based on your written application to the customs authority, the storage period may be extended, but not more than by 15 calendar days.
